The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2015-2016 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2015. The use of these funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

*Psychological Assessments	*Sex Offender Evaluation/Treatment	*Mediation/Conflict Resolution
*Restitution/Community Service	*Substance Abuse Assessment/Treatment	*Parent/Family Skill Building
*Community/Structured Day Program	*Counseling Services	*Interpersonal Skill Building
*Mentoring	*Vocational Development	*Teen Court
	*Shelter Care Services	*Tutoring/Academic Enhancement

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

Adjudicated or youth involved in the Juvenile Justice system are demonstrating the following risk factors: peer relationship issues, associates with delinquent peers, serious school problems, substance abuse use, parents who have problems providing adequate levels of supervision, and have the potential to runaway from home or placement.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Rowan Youth involved in juvenile justice regularly associate with other involved in delinquent/criminal activity more than the state average.

Individual Domain: Adjudicated and at-risk youth have mental health and substance abuse needs that need further assessments, have a history of victimization and engages in dangerous sexual practices.

Family Domain: Marginal Parenting Supervision skills.

School Domain: Adjudicated and at-risk youth demonstrate serious school problems: long-term suspensions and multiple unexcused absences.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
